Chicago, IL 60611

Dear Kathleen,

As the Archbishop's Delegate to the Professional Fitness Review Board, I am writing to you regarding the matter of Leonard P. Kmak, a resigned priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago, against whom an allegation has been made that he had engaged in sexual misconduct with a minor when he was still functioning as a priest.

This letter is written in order to provide you with information regarding the cleric's file or background as required by Archdiocesan Policies and Procedures, Book II, Part I, Title III, Chapter I, policy and procedure §1104.7.1, and as authorized by policies §702.1.a and §1106.3.2.

Even though Leonard Kmak is no longer active as a priest, policy §1104.2, procedure "e" requires that an allegation that is made against a cleric who has resigned from active ministry "shall be processed in the same manner as any other allegation to the extent necessary to make a determination whether there is reasonable cause to suspect that the accused had engaged in sexual misconduct with a minor during the time he was serving as a cleric of the Archdiocese and to facilitate the outreach to those affected as contemplated by these policies."

Leonard P. Kmak was born in Chicago, Illinois on [REDACTED]. He attended the Archdiocesan seminaries and was ordained a priest by the late then-Archbishop Albert G. Meyer on May 7, 1959. He served as Assistant Pastor ("Vicarius Cooperator") at St. Fidelis Parish from July 1959 to July 1964 and at St. Veronica Parish from July 1964 until August 1968, when he took a leave of absence. On January 24, 1969 the Holy Father, Pope Paul IV, granted Leonard Kmak a dispensation from all the obligations of Sacred Orders. The Rescript of the Sacred Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith (Prot. N. 977/68) in essence granted Leonard Kmak's petition to be laicized with permission to marry. On March 1, 1969, the late Father John Richard Keating witnessed the canonical marriage of Leonard Kmak and [REDACTED] at St. Germaine Church, Oak Lawn, having been expressly delegated to do so by the late John Cardinal Cody. The ceremony was performed with no other witnesses present and under obligation of secrecy, as was required at the time by the rescript of laicization from the Holy See.

Professional Fitness Review Administrator

In his letter of petition for laicization dated May 17, 1968 and addressed to His Eminence, Franjo Cardinal Seper, Prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, there is a pertinent passage in which Leonard Kmak wrote:

Please keep in mind that §1104.6 of the Archdiocesan policies pertaining to clerical sexual misconduct with minors provides that the information generated in connection with this process shall be maintained in a confidential manner and may only be disclosed in accordance with these policies and procedures.

If you have any questions or need any additional information, please let me know.

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces a letter from Victim JK to Kathleen Leggdas, Professional Fitness Review Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Fitness Review and Michael Bland of the Archdiocese of Chicago Office of Victim Assistance Ministry, dated August 2, 2001. Victim JK had previously met with Leggdas and Bland in order to formalize her allegation of abuse by Fr. Leonard Kmak. Victim JK expressed her distress at learning that Michael Bland was a former priest who had regularly participated in services at the parish where Kmak was a parishioner. Given this information, Victim JK felt that Bland should have excused himself from the meeting at which she formalized her allegation of abuse against Kmak.

Re: Leonard Kmak

Father Larry McBrady and I met with Leonard Kmak on July 31, 2001. Leonard resigned from active ministry more than 30 years ago in 1968. He had been ordained in 1959. Len is married and has adult children. His wife, [REDACTED] has been a director of religious education at St. Julie Billiart since the foundation of the parish.

This was the second meeting I had with Leonard regarding sexual misconduct of a minor some 40 years ago. This occurred during the time he was associate pastor at St. Fidelis Parish in Chicago. The minor with whom Leonard had relationships is [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] brought her claim to the Professional Fitness Review Office. She indicated that while Len was a priest he dated her at the age of [REDACTED] years. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] During my first meeting with Leonard, and Kathleen Leggdas, Len denied all allegations. However, in his letter to Rome requesting laicization, he mentioned that he showed special affection to two very young girls. He thought he spoiled their lives because of his relationships with them. After the letter was read to Len, he admitted going out with [REDACTED] who was very mature for a [REDACTED]-year old. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Len said he was very sorry for what happened and asked me to express sorrow to [REDACTED] which I will do through Kathleen Leggdas.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] is not looking for any money from the diocese. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Prior to her marriage, Len's wife was a nun and taught [REDACTED] does not wish to disturb the family life of the Kmak's.

Leonard Kmak is now 68 years old with a bad heart. In a few weeks he will undergo hip surgery. He appears to be repentant for what he did years ago.

The reason for the interview was based on due diligence in behalf of anyone else that might ever come forward regarding an experience with Leonard.

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract supplements a memorandum from Fr. James Kaczorowski to Francis Cardinal George, dated August 3, 2001, summarizing Frs. Kaczorowski and Larry McBrady's meeting with former Fr. Leonard Kmak on July 31, 2001. Fr. Kaczorowski's memorandum summarizes the specifics of Victim JK's allegation of abuse by Kmak. The memorandum also notes that although he initially denied any inappropriate conduct, Kmak later admitted to kissing and touching Victim JK over her clothes.

Re: Review Board Meeting – Leonard Kmak – First Stage Review

Date: August 18, 2001

The Review Board conducted a First Stage Review in the matter of Leonard Kmak, a resigned priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago. The Board reviewed the summaries of the allegation and Kmak's response written by Kathleen Leggdas.

In light of the information presented, the Review Board determined that there is reasonable cause to suspect that sexual misconduct occurred with a minor.

Since Kmak is resigned from active ministry as a priest, there is no question for the Review Board regarding any current risk to minors in an Archdiocesan ministry. However, the determination of the Review Board is made to provide guidance to the Archdiocese in dealing with the allegation and the alleged victim.

B. In the Matter of Resigned Priest, Leonard Kmak, PFR-78

The Review Board conducted a First Stage Review in the matter of Leonard Kmak, a resigned priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago. The Board reviewed the summaries of the allegation and Kmak's response written by Kathleen Leggdas.

In light of the information presented, the Review Board determined that there is reasonable cause to suspect that sexual misconduct occurred with a minor.

Since Kmak is resigned from active ministry as a priest, there is no question for the Review Board regarding any current risk to minors in an Archdiocesan ministry. However, the determination of the Review Board is made to provide guidance to the Archdiocese in dealing with the allegation and the alleged victim.

Archdiocese settles with 24 accusers

October 28, 2005

BY CATHLEEN FALSANI Religion Reporter

The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Chicago has reached an out-of-court settlement with two dozen men and women who say they were sexually abused as minors by priests of the archdiocese, lawyers for the victims and a spokesman for Cardinal Francis George said Thursday.

The settlement involves 14 current or former priests, none of whom is in active ministry today. Five of the men — Eugene Burns, William Cloutier, Jeremiah Duggan, Leonard Kmak and Marion Snieg — are deceased, said Jim Dwyer, a spokesman for George.

The other nine — John Curran, James Hagan, Thomas Job, Thomas Kelly, Vincent McCaffrey, John Robinson, Ralph Strand and Thomas Swade — have been removed permanently from ministry, Dwyer said.

Since 1950, the Chicago archdiocese has received credible allegations of sexual abuse of minors against 60 priests, Dwyer said. At a press conference Thursday, Jeffrey Anderson and Marc Pearlman, attorneys for the 24 abuse survivors, released a list of 38 priests (including the 14 involved in the settlement) they say have credible allegations of abuse against them.

Abuse long ago

Dwyer confirmed that their list of 38 was accurate, but declined to name the remaining 22 priests or provide a comprehensive list of the names of all 60 priests who have been accused since 1950, citing concerns about naming someone publicly who has never been charged criminally or sued for sexually abusing minors.

Many of the priests accused of abuse in the Chicago archdiocese and elsewhere never have been successfully prosecuted or sued because the alleged abuse took place so long ago, civil and criminal statutes of limitation have expired.

List of accused priests

While they commended archdiocesan officials for their willingness to negotiate and settle with abuse survivors whose cases were beyond statutes of limitations, Anderson and Pearlman called on archdiocesan officials to release a comprehensive list of priests who stand accused of abusing minors.

"Until they come clean, as it were, with what they know, children are at risk, the parishes of the archdiocese of Chicago are not safe and we are deeply worried," said Anderson, a St. Paul, Minn., attorney who has represented hundreds of clergy sex abuse victims across the nation.

Neither Anderson, Pearlman, nor Dwyer would disclose the monetary amount of the settlement.

RE: Father Leonard Kmak

Dear Director Dolan,

I am writing this letter on behalf of my father,

Late October we had read an article in the Chicago Sun Times Newspaper stating that  former Father Leonard Kmak, had been charged with sexually abusing a minor. This has really upset my father, especially since his mother had so admired  Leonard.

While he was a priest, he served at St. Fideles from approximately 1959 to 1964 and at St. Veronica's from approximately 1964 to 1969. Leonard had left the priesthood around 1969 in order to get married and raise a family. He then was very active with St. Julie's Church in Tinley Park.

We were wondering how we could obtain more information about the charges that were filed against him. Any help you could give us would be greatly appreciated and help with family closure on the matter.
