Rev. William C. Neuroth

Wilder - Neuroth, Rev. William C.

Beloved husband of 47 years to Mary Anne K. (nee Burke) Neuroth.
Devoted father of Michael William (Amber) Neuroth. Loving grandfather of William Henry Neuroth and James Douglas Neuroth. Dear brother of Robert Neuroth, Richard (Mary Ann) Neuroth and Marilyn (late Bernie)

Neuroth Schlake. Preceded in death by his parents, Williams J. and Doris (nee Stith) Neuroth. Also survived by nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and friends. Passed away on May 4, 2018, at age 78. Rev.

Neuroth was Rector Emeritus of St. John's Anglican Catholic Church in Dayton, Kentucky. He graduated from Newport Catholic High School, obtained a Master's Degree in Social Work and in Divinity. He was the founder of Brighton Street Center in Newport, Kentucky over 50 years ago; was longtime Executive Director of the Northern Kentucky Interfaith Commission; and supported programs including Family Promise of NY (fka Interfaith Hospitality Network), Exodus Jail Ministry Program, Greater Cincinnati Airport Chaplaincy Program, ECHO Soup Kitchen and others. The motto of the Brighton St. Center was "To Love is to Care." He lived this motto every day through his love and care for family, friends, the Church, and the city of Newport. His courage and compassion touched the lives of many and his legacy endures through them.
